

APPELLATE REPRESENTATION TRAINING SEMINAR - 2018

Friday, February 9, 2018

Milton Marks Conf. Center, Appellate Courts Bldg., 350 McAllister Street, S.F.
(Space generously provided by the Judicial Council of California)

8:15 - 8:45	Registration
8:45 - 9:45	Recent Legal Developments in Substantive Criminal Law and Appellate Practice	Grace Shigetani, FDAP Staff Attorney
9:45 - 9:50	Short break to switch rooms
9:50 - 10:35 Breakout Sessions	New Marijuana Laws: Impact on Fourth Amendment Rights	Kathryn Seligman FDAP Staff Attorney	Admission of Hearsay and Assessing Reliability in Dependency Cases	Louise Collari, FDAP Staff Attorney
10:35 - 10:50	Break
10:50 - 11:50	Immigration Consequences of Criminal Convictions	Raha Jorjani Ofc. of the Alameda County Public Defender
11:50 - 12:50	Lunch
12:50 - 1:35 Breakout Sessions	California Sentencing Reform	Stephanie Clarke FDAP Staff Attorney	Dependency Practice on the FDAP Panel	Amy Grigsby Louise Collari FDAP Staff Attorneys
1:35 - 1:40	Short break to switch rooms
1:40 - 2:10	The Ethics of Client Communication	Richard Braucher FDAP Staff Attorney
2:10 - 2:25	Break
2:25 - 3:40	Representing Incarcerated Clients; A Panel of Formerly Incarcerated Individuals	Moderated by Paula Rudman and Richard Braucher, FDAP Staff Attorneys
3:40 - 4:25	Ethical Considerations Regarding Counsel's File	J. Bradley O'Connell, FDAP Asst. Director Richard Zitrin, Attorney at Law

This MCLE activity is approved for MCLE credit in the amount of 6 hours credit, with 1.25 credits for ethics.