39 Purpose of This Bill

40 California's juvenile justice system currently has as its goals
41 protection of society and rehabilitation of youthful offender.
42 Punishment is not recognized as a goal of the juvenile justice system.
43 This bill would make clear that punishment can be an appropriate and 44 effective method to rehabilitate youthful offenders. This change has 45 been recommended by a recent RAND Corporation study and by the 46 Commission for the Revision of the Juvenile Court Law. The author 47 also believes that this change reflects what participants in the 48 system already believe to be the case: Youthful offenders are 49 sentenced to the California Youth Authority or to juvenile hall or to 50 a county camp to punish them for their criminal activity. This is 51 done because it is believed that punishment may cause youthful

1 offenders to see the error of their ways and ultimately cause them to 2 reform. This bill seeks to recognize this reality and to put it into 3 law. This bill is part of the bipartisan Juvenile Justice Reform
4 Program of 1984.

7
8 Both AB 2756 and AB 3724 (Nolan) seek to recognize and authorize the 9 use of punishment as a legitimate tool to rehabilitate or resocialize 10 youthful offenders. AB 2756 defines its goal in terms of 11 rehabilitation. AB 3724 uses the terms behavior modification and 12 resocialization.

13
14 AB 2756 was drafted in response to a recent Rand Corporation study
15 commissioned by the Legislature. The Rand report recommended
16 recognizing use of punishment in the juvenile justice system. AB 3724
17 was drafted by the Commission for the Revision of the Juvenile Court
18 Law, which also recommended recognizing use of punishment. AB 2756 19 was recently amended to adopt the definition of punishment drafted by 20 the Commission. That definition has been contained in AB 3724 since 21 its introduction.

22
23 Both bills include recognition of these goals for the Juvenile Court
24 Law: Protection of the public, protection of the minor, 25 accountability, providing for the welfare of the minor, and 26 recognition of the importance of the family unit. AB 3724 declares
27 that the ultimate objectives of the Juvenile Court Law are behavior
28 modification and resocialization of minors within the court's 29 jurisdiction.
