NOTICE CONCERNING CONFIDENTIALITY OF ADDRESSES

Please note that in the enclosed application to join the First District panel of appointed attorneys, your “Business Address” and phone number will be given to the client.

In addition, because FDAP uses UPS and UPS will not deliver to P.O. Box addresses, we have asked you for a separate shipping address if your business address is a P.O. Box. Sometimes people use their home address as the shipping address. The shipping address will be kept confidential by FDAP, and will not be given out to the client or anyone else.

However, some of the Superior Court county clerks offices also use UPS for shipping, and so if your business address is a P.O. Box they ask FDAP for your shipping address in cases where they are shipping the record directly to you. It is necessary for us in that situation to give them the shipping address. Although we have requested that this address be kept confidential, we have no direct control over the County clerks and on rare occasion the County clerks have given out the shipping address.

If you wish to avoid even the remote possibility that your shipping address may end up being given out by the county clerks, you should use a business address that is not a P.O. Box. (In that event, FDAP does not even ask you for a shipping address, and only your business address is given to the county clerks.) In that regard, you might consider renting a “PMB” for your business address; a number of panel attorneys have done this. A “PMB” stands for “Private Mail Box” and many providers have them— they’re listed in the yellow pages under “Mail Receiving and Forwarding Services.” UPS and the other services deliver to PMB’s.
